

ALLEYN COURT CENTENARY PUBLICATION

Using magazine, archive, original and other material from a variety of sources, this hard-backed book, with dustwrapper, by the founder's grandson, is an attempt to capture the flavour of Alleyn Court during the last 100 years. It does not set out to be a formal history — school histories are invariably tedious — but aims to be richly entertaining as well as a significant social document.

To be published, fully illustrated, in the autumn of 2004.
